of this action. Parties appearing before this Court are systematically granted 60-70 days from filings of their complaint to file a Joint Status Report, and find this an adequate amount of time. If Plaintiff feels he needs more than 120 days to accomplish service of his complaint, an FRCP 26 conference and the preparation of a Joint Status Report, he must file a declaration indicating his efforts to date, and why he has been unable to accomplish these goals within the time allotted.
